Each variation is a single line of music with a staff and a key signature. Above the staff, chords are indicated: A, D, A, E7, A, E7, A. Variation a) starts with a quarter rest, followed by a series of eighth notes. Variation a') is similar but includes a (D) chord. Variation b) starts with a quarter rest, followed by a series of eighth notes. Variation c) includes a trill (tr) and first/second endings. Variation d) includes a quarter rest and first/second endings.

Phil Cook played this aabbaaccaadd. If you are playing it for the 24 bar contra dance you might go aabbccaabdd or something to that effect.
